

CASELLAS ALCOVER & BURGOS P.S.C.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Announcement

Casellas Alcover & Burgos P.S.C. is pleased to announce that effective September 3, 2013, Diana Pérez Seda joined the firm as an Associate Attorney.

Diana graduated from Fordham University, Lincoln Center campus, in New York City in 2005, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology. She then returned to Puerto Rico to pursue her legal education and career. In 2009, Diana graduated magna cum laude from the University of Puerto Rico School of Law, where she completed a dual-degree program in conjunction with the University of Barcelona School of Law, earning both a J.D. and a Licenciatura de Dret.

Prior to joining CAB, Diana earned extensive trial and appellate court experience while serving as a judicial law clerk for the Hon. Chief Justice Federico Hernández Denton of the Puerto Rico Supreme Court (2009-2010), the Hon. Jay A. García-Gregory of the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (2010-2011), and the Hon. Juan R. Torruella of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit (2012-2013).

In 2012, Diana completed an LL.M. degree at Harvard Law School, where she focused her studies on Constitutional, Administrative and Environmental Law. She is currently an adjunct professor of law at the University of Puerto Rico School of Law, where she teaches legal research and writing.

Diana's main areas of law practice include Commercial litigation, Civil Appellate Practice and Constitutional Law.
